

ATTACHMENT A

Recommended SUD Medi-Cal Essential Benefits

1. Screening (a brief process differentiated from a full assessment)
2. Intake processing (includes data gathering, income determination, etc.)
3. Assessment and treatment plan development or revision.
4. Consultation (such as with primary medical care provider)
5. Psycho-education/patient disease management assistance
6. Brief intervention
7. Outpatient counseling (both individual and group at varying lengths)
8. Day treatment
9. Patient education.
10. Case or care management
11. Family counseling
12. Recovery management/assistance; continuing care
13. Medication assisted treatment, including both detoxification and maintenance
14. Treatment of co-occurring disorders
15. Residential treatment
16. Transitional housing support
17. Transportation support
18. Day care
19. Telemedicine